An outstanding program is being finalized by our Program Planning Committee, and includes a Plenary Session with William Miller and Stephen Rollnick. Also at the FORUM, the Board of MINT Incorporated will present a plenary session Annual Report and conduct the annual meeting of the General Membership. A detailed schedule of other plenary sessions, and many informative and valuable daily break-out sessions, will be posted on our websites as they are confirmed.

Our local Host Committee has arranged beautiful, welcoming, first-class and economical facilities in a wonderful setting, with delightful social events. The Forum schedule is arranged to allow 3 hours of free time on Thursday and Friday between Morning and Afternoon sessions, to enjoy with your colleagues, for lunch on your own, enjoying the beach, networking, shopping, rest and respite, or as you wish. Please plan to return promptly for the late afternoon FORUM sessions —you won't want to miss them!

MINT TNT/FORUM Location:

Sitges (Barcelona) is a pioneering town of Spanish tourism since the beginning of the 19th century and is known as one of the “jewels of European tourism”, with a climate that is always mild and surroundings ideal for combining work and rest (www.sitges.cat). This year’s workshop site is the Hotel Gran Meliá Sitges, conveniently located within walking distance to the pubs, shops and restaurants at the marina, close to a couple of sandy beaches and next to the historical center. Sitges has much to offer in terms of museums, beaches, leisure and night life. Besides that, for those who want to visit Barcelona, the train takes you in just 25 minutes to the heart of the city, within walking distance to Las Ramblas (the Gothic area,) the Picasso Museum, and Gaudi’s monuments (<http://www.bcn.cat/english/ihome.htm>).

Barcelona El Prat airport is conveniently located 15 km north of Sitges. There are also two more airports (Girona and Reus) used by low cost companies. They are located 120 km and 80 km, respectively from the Hotel.

Information on transfers to and from all airports can be found at:

http://www.aena.es/csee/Satellite?pagename=Home&Language=EN_GB

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS:

Accommodations at special MINT FORUM rates for advance booking are available at Hotel Gran Meliá Sitges, site of the FORUM, and at two other hotels located nearby. Please complete the hotel booking form ONLINE in order to obtain the MINT FORUM Motivational Week discount. Members unable to book online should contact the event coordinators as indicated above.

Prices shown are per night, per room (not per person,) and include breakfast. VAT (7%) not included. You may wish to share a double room for the most economical lodging.

	Single	Double

Wednesday 3 June TNT/MINT Reception will be at: La Caleta de Sitges

Friday 5 June MINT FORUM social evening Dinner will be at: Restaurante Can Laurie Peix

OUR SPONSORS:

This meeting is sponsored by the international Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers Incorporated (MINT). Registration fees are designed to meet costs, and any proceeds will be used to support the mission, services and programs of MINT Incorporated, a non-profit organization.

MINT Incorporated gratefully acknowledges the support of GETEM: Grupo Español de Trabajo en Entrevista Motivacional (Spanish Work Group in Motivational Interviewing) as our Local Host Committee, whose generous assistance makes this event possible.

Pre-FORUM Workshop

Motivational Interviewing: Supervising and Mentoring

William Miller

Emeritus Distinguished Professor of Psychology and Psychiatry
University of New Mexico, USA

and

Kathy Goumas

Health and Social Care Services,
Northern Ireland

Training research has clearly shown the importance of ongoing coaching and feedback when learning MI. This 2-day pre-Forum workshop is for MINTies who have an ongoing relationship with the staff of a particular agency or system, and who want to strengthen their skills in supervising and mentoring others who are learning MI. Among the topics addressed will be:

- ◆ A variety of training methods to help practitioners develop and increase their competence in MI
- ◆ Methods for reviewing and coding MI sessions and tapes, with attention to aspects of practice that most impact client outcome
- ◆ Developmental sequencing of MI training for individuals and groups
- ◆ Tools and methods for providing structured objective feedback on practice
- ◆ Coaching for skill improvement
- ◆ Quality assurance and quality improvement systems
- ◆ Various approaches for supervising and mentoring in an MI-consistent manner, either face-to-face or via audio or video links
- ◆ Implementing MI within ongoing systems
- ◆ Integrating MI practice with other clinical methods

Lunch for the workshop is included each day. Participants must be MINT members and be registered to attend the FORUM; substantial prior experience with MI practice and training will be assumed.

Enrollment is limited to 40 participants. The trainers are donating their time, and the proceeds will benefit the MINT Scholarship Fund.
